Jesu, Joy of Man' s Desiring transcription for violin and piano

J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

Moderato

Violin

Piano

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It follows the same three-staff structure as the first system, with a treble clef staff and a grand staff. The melodic line continues with similar rhythmic patterns, and the piano accompaniment provides harmonic support.

Third system of musical notation. This system introduces a slur over a group of notes in both the treble and bass staves of the grand staff, indicating a phrase to be played smoothly. The melodic line continues in the top staff.

Fourth system of musical notation. The top staff shows a melodic line that ends with a whole rest in the final two measures. The grand staff continues with piano accompaniment, including a slur in the bass line.

System 1: Treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 7/8 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. The piano accompaniment features chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

System 2: Continuation of the melody and piano accompaniment from the first system.

System 3: Continuation of the melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a long note in the bass line.

System 4: Continuation of the melody and piano accompaniment, concluding the piece.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same three-staff structure and key signature. The accompaniment in the grand staff shows more intricate chordal textures.

Third system of musical notation. This system includes a fermata over a note in the bass line of the grand staff, indicating a moment of suspension or emphasis in the music.

Fourth system of musical notation, the final system on this page. It concludes the musical phrase with various rhythmic and melodic patterns across the three staves.
